

Data Day 3
Using Data to Assess Title I Services

Friday, February 6, 2004

8:30am - 5:00pm

New York Law School, Lecture Hall A400

47 Worth Street

Program Agenda

- 8:30am-8:45am: Continental Breakfast
- 8:45am-9:15am: Welcome, Overview and Objectives – Susan Abramowitz, PhD, Data Committee Co-Chair
- 9:15am-10:00am: Data-Driven Planning that Addresses Unmet Need – Sheila McCarthy, HRSA Project Officer
- 10:00am-10:15am: Break
- 10:15am-12:00pm: Panel Presentation: What Questions Are We Asking? – Joe Pressely, Chair, Planning and Evaluation Committee
- Is there a compelling need for the service?
  - Is the service reaching special populations and areas disproportionately affected by the epidemic?
  - Is the service meeting the objectives set forth in the Strategic Plan?
  - Does the service clearly and demonstrably contribute to improved health outcomes?
- 12:00pm-1:00pm: Lunch Provided
- 1:00pm-4:00pm: Workgroup Break-Out Sessions: Review Service Portfolios Using Data to Answer the Planning Questions
- 4:00pm-5:00pm: Workgroup Summary Reports – Susan Abramowitz, PhD, Data Committee Co-Chair